

Option 1:

We are thrilled to partner with Classroom Central for the 2024 Backpacks and Basics build event! 🎒

The need in our community continues to grow, and it is more important than ever to show our students that they are capable of amazing accomplishments. We'll join forces to build 35,000 backpacks filled with essential school supplies. These backpacks will be provided to every student in the area's highest-need schools before the start of the fall semester.

By partnering with Classroom Central, we are making a significant impact on education equity and empower students to thrive. Together, we are guiding students from crayons to successful careers!

Option 2:

Did you know that 54% of children in our community live below the poverty line and lack access to basic school supplies? We think child deserves the opportunity to learn and succeed, which is why we proudly support Classroom Central's Backpacks and Basics 2024 backpack build!

We'll build 35,000 backpacks filled with essential supplies, we can empower these students to start the new school year on the right foot, guiding them towards success. The opportunities for impact are endless - learn about Classroom Central by clicking www.classroomcentral.org. Together, we're transforming young lives and turning #pencilsintopossibilities 🖋️🎒

Option 3:

Right here in our own community, 1 in 2 local students starts school without any supplies. It impacts both their confidence and their academic performance in the classroom.

That's why we are delighted to announce that [company] is partnering with Classroom Central as a proud sponsor of the 2024 Backpacks & Basics backpack build! Together, we will build and provide 35,000 backpacks filled with essential supplies for these incredible students, ensuring they have everything they need for the first day of school.

By partnering with Classroom Central we can uplift students, boost their confidence, and ease the burden on our teachers. Let's make a real difference in these students' lives and help them start the school year strong! Learn more at www.classroomcentral.org #pencilsintopossibilities
